P R O C L A M A T I O N

Inasmuch as the various farm organizations in the state have expressed a desire that a day be designated as Justice for Agriculture Day, and that upon that occasion special efforts be made to direct the attention of every citizen to the necessity of more equitable prices for farm commodities:

Therefore, I, Tom Berry, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Monday, November 20, as Justice for Agriculture Day, and request that upon that day all buying and marketing of farm products be suspended, and that thoughtful attention be given to the problems which confront us.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Pierre, this 17th day of November, 1933.

By the Governor

Tom Berry
